

Privacy Policy

We respect your privacy and are committed to protecting any information you may provide while using this website.

This website does not collect personal information through forms, user accounts, or sign-in features. However, certain non-personal information may be collected automatically, including your IP address, browser type, and general browsing behaviour.

We may use cookies or similar technologies to enhance your browsing experience and analyse website traffic. This helps us improve the performance and usability of the site.

We may rely on trusted third-party services, such as hosting providers or analytics tools, which may process limited data in accordance with their own privacy policies.

We take reasonable measures to protect any information collected and ensure the security of our website.

You have the right to request access to or deletion of any personal data where applicable.

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on this page.
